- Items printed in italics are optional, the others are mandatory and without their completion the application form will not be accepted.

- The password for the first login has to be at least 12 characters long with a combination of characters from at least three character sets - lowercase letters, uppercase letters, numbers or non-alphanumeric symbols (e.g. &, %, $, #, @, ...).

User's Acknowledgement:

I confirm that I am acquainted with rules and conditions of using the Golias farm according to "Documentation for Golias Farm Users"<sup>1</sup> and I will observe them. I also confirm that I will observe "Rules for the use of computers and IP LAN at the Institute of Physics"<sup>2</sup>.

I declare:

- I will change my initial password immediately to a non-trivial one. I will use more than 12 characters and choose a combination of characters from at least three character sets - lowercase letters, uppercase letters, numbers or non-alphanumeric symbols (e.g. &, %, $, #, @, ...). I will keep the password secret and in case of suspicion of his disclosure I will immediately inform system administrators.
- I will not seek non-assigned access rights.
- I will respect the restrictions announced by system administrators and all their further instructions.
- I will immediately notify system administrators about any changes of data I have provided in this application form and I will alert them to all suspicious operational failures and unusual system behavior I will observe.

By signing this form I acknowledge that I have been informed and I am aware that any infringement of these rules can cause the loss of my user access to the Golias farm and liability for potential damage caused by this non-compliance.
